

a few quick things

- related courses
- upcoming outreach event
- deliverables
- staying in touch

related courses

more courses on the science of information

- 376b (coming quarter): network information theory
- 376c: universal schemes in information theory
- 376d: wireless information theory
- 377: information theory and statistics

our outreach event

- Lucille M. Nixon Elementary School
- coming Saturday, March 16th, 5pm-8pm
- “science and engineering of information” night
- you’ll get pizza

deliverables (by 3/24)

- blogpost reporting on/describing your project+outreach activity
- write to us with your final grade (preferably with some details of how you arrived at it)
- please take our survey (in addition to the usual teaching eval)

stay in touch

- rotations
- summer research
- outreach
- take availability survey (shortly after end of quarter)
- in general: we care about and for you. so be in touch!